

PRESS RELEASE

May 14, 2009

CON - REAL SELECTED TO REBRAND A CLUSTER OF BANKS FOR JPMORGAN CHASE IN HOUSTON AREA

HOUSTON, TX – Earlier this week, Con-Real was awarded a contract to rebrand a cluster of banks in the Houston Area for JPMorgan Chase. Formerly Washington Mutual branches, this cluster of banks are managed by program managers, Bovis Lend Lease (Bovis). Bovis serves as JPMorgan Chase's Program Manager for the Central area of the United States and ranks among the world's largest construction management specialists.

Con-Real has maintained an office in Houston since the mid-1990s and has completed construction services for the following clients PepsiCo/Frito-Lay, Wachovia, Home Depot, HEButt Construction, Hobby International Airport, Unity National Bank, and First Metropolitan Church. Thus far, Con-Real's largest multi-site project was the rebranding of 223 World Savings Banks for Wachovia, NA. This fast track $50 million contract was completed within six months including pre and post construction services. "I am happy to report that Wachovia Senior management was pleased with the efforts by Con-Real in their ability to bring the total project in underbudget....We truly appreciate the effort by the entire Con-Real team to reach the goals and are pleased with the financial outcome of the project." John Becker, VP, Corporate Real Estate

For over thirty (30) years, Con-Real has provided an array of services throughout the nation including Program Management, Construction Management, Design Build, General Contracting and full Real Estate services. With corporate offices in Arlington, Texas, Con-Real continues its operations through the southwest region with offices in Dallas, Fort Worth, Austin, Little Rock, Oakland and San Jose.

For additional information contact:

Sharon Roberson-Jones

817.856.4121

sroberson@con-real.com

###